

Dorothy Carter Haven at Wayfarers for Ninth Year

The Christmas program featuring Dorothy Carter Haven in the Monodrama, "Mary, Mother of Jesus," will be presented at the Wayfarers' Chapel, Portuguese Bend, on Sunday, Dec. 4th at 4 p.m. and at 7:30 p.m.

The public may obtain free reserved seat tickets for the presentation by writing to the Wayfarers' Chapel, Portuguese Bend, or by telephoning FRontier 7-1650. Since the seating capacity of the Chapel is limited, those who wish to attend should send or telephone for tickets immediately.

MISS HAVEN, a nationally-known dramatist known as the "One Woman Theater," will dramatize the life of Jesus' mother in five scenes extending from the family circle in Nazareth to the temple in Jerusalem. The drama was drawn from historical records and Scriptures.

Although Miss Haven portrays only one character, Mary, she is so effective with her pantomime that she gives the illusion that all characters in the holy family are on the stage.

This will be the ninth year that Miss Haven has presented the monodrama and there are many who look forward to it each year as an appropriate and inspiring introduction to the Christmas season.

Pen and Quill Launches New Banquet Menus

Because of an increasing demand for party facilities, particularly from South Bay-Torrance business and social groups, The Pen and Quill Restaurant in Manhattan Beach has introduced a special banquet menu.

Planned to meet diversified dining preferences, the new special occasion menu offers a wide selection of 17 different full-course dinners, three of them fish entrees and six are meat specialties from the broiler. The prices on the complete banquet dinners begin at $2.50. The Pen and Quill features spacious and comfortable banquet accommodations for small and large parties, as well as private rooms for social meetings and business-industry conferences.

BEST BUYS FOR THE WEEK In Torrance Markets

PROTEIN FOODS
EGGS. With demand and supply both holding steady little change is expected in price, but no lowering in price is in the offing.

Most southern Californians have been stuffed with turkey and ham. So, you can be sure that markets will emphasize the red meats this week. You may have to do a bit of shopping to find values most interesting to you. "Specials" will vary from market to market.

You can make your selection from BEEF, LAMB, FRESH PORK, and . . . of course . . . POULTRY, which is plentiful. In fact, a record supply of poultry is being held in freezer storage in readiness for the holidays.

In general (with the exception of market features) you will find PORK prices not taking the drop which we usually expect at this time of the year. Reports estimate 10 to 15 per cent fewer pigs will travel to market this year than last.

This is pot-roast weather. Instead of the more usual roasts with vegetables your family might enjoy a California Spiced Pot Roast.

- 5 pound beef pot roast (chuck or rump)
 - 2 tablespoons fat
 - 1 cup California red table wine. Salt to taste
 - 3 tablespoons mixed pickling spice
 - 1 cup dried apricots or prunes
- Brown roast in hot fat in a heavy kettle. Add wine and spices. Cover tightly and simmer 3 to 3½ hours or until fork tender. If more liquid is required, add water, a small amount at a time. Do not "drown" the meat. During last hour of cooking add fruit.
- ON THE PRODUCE STANDS
APPLES, AVOCADOS, GRAPES, GRAPEFRUIT

PEARS, TANGERINES
The weatherman has made some changes in our fresh vegetable supply. Those abundant are the hardy ones:
BROCCOLI, BRUSSELS SPROUTS, CABBAGE, CARROTS, CAULIFLOWER, CELERY, POTATOES, YAMS

Total supplies of fresh vegetables during the next four to six weeks will be close to those of a year ago. But supplies of frozen vegetables available during the first half of 1961 will be the same or slightly larger than those of a year ago. Canned vegetable supplies are likely to be a little smaller.
